1 2 3 4 5

2. Would you say that everyone in your group feels comfortable sharing or are most questions answered and discussed by only a predictable few?
3. What were some of the greatest joys your group experienced this cycle?
4. What have been some of the greatest challenges your group has faced this cycle?
5. Is there anything you wish your group leaders would take into consideration?
6. Did you have expectations coming into this group that were not met but that you would like to see addressed during the next cycle?

Other Features of Healthy Groups

1. Was your group able to get together to fellowship apart from the scheduled LIFE Group session time, or do you have plans to do so before the launch of the winter cycle in mid-January?

Yes No

2. Would you feel comfortable inviting friends who are not participants in your LIFE Group to a fellowship with your group?

Yes No

3. Did your group decide upon a service project to do together? If yes, what project did you choose? If the project has been completed, please let us know what you did and how it went.

4. Does your group take time to pray together? Do you think the members of your group feel comfortable voicing prayer requests and praises?

5. Did the group leaders affirm the gifts and talents of group participants, allowing opportunities for others to take a role within the group?

Yes No

6. Do you feel that your group's leadership was responsive to suggestions from participants about matters affecting the group, e.g., the way the group spent its time together, the adherence to core values or to the group covenant, flexibility to adapt to suit the wishes of the group, etc?

(1= not very responsive; 5= very responsive and accommodating to suggestions)
